

The Fairfax-Loudoun Music Fellowship met on Wednesday, May 12, 2021, on Zoom. Attendees included Claudia Libero, Lydia Kriso, Sharon Reck, Annie Feigles, Jan Bode, Jeri Bennett, Rachel Harmatuk, Sandy Baker, Karen Pino, Melinda McCullough, Renea Duelm, Mylinda Dockery, Connie Olivera, Phyllis Vickers, and Libby McConnell.

Sharon Reck opened the meeting at 10:05 a.m. Libby McConnell read the March minutes, which were approved as read.

Treasurer's Report: Sandy Baker reported a total of $5,906.33 in the checking account. Expenses included the speaker fee from March and website fees to Wix. Income included a credit from Homestead (previous web host) and membership dues via PayPal.

Membership Report: Melinda McCullah reported that the club has received eight membership renewals. She will send a reminder email later this month about renewing membership.

Harpichord: Rachel Harmatuk is storing the instrument. It will move to Beverly Teague for the summer. The schedule will be updated this summer.

Website: Sharon Reck reported that the domain change was completed in time to avoid paying a renewal fee to the previous web host. The website is almost complete. Some actions for events are not yet completed, and Sharon has noticed some spacing issues on the mobile site. Payment for dues is up and running. Please email Sharon with any other edits needed.

Ensemble Festival 2022: Sharon and Libby reported that LCPS has opened the calendar to reserve dates in for 2022. Use of facilities will be guided by gubernatorial orders in effect at the time of the event. Teachers interested in participating include Mylinda Dockery, Melinda McCullough, Karen Pino, Annie Feigles, Sharon Reck, Lydia Kriso, Connie Olivera, Libby McConnell, and Sandy Baker. Music selection meetings will be scheduled for this summer. Members who are fully vaccinated are welcome to attend in person. A Zoom link will be provided to members wishing to participate virtually.
