

The Fairfax-Loudoun Music Fellowship met on Wednesday, November 13, 2020, at Music & Arts in Leesburg. Members present included Karen Pino, Connie Olivera, Melinda McCullah, Annie Feigles, Sandy Baker, Jeri Bennett, Rachel Harmatuk, Kathleen LeVasseur, Debra Gunnerson, Libby McConnell, and Sharon Reck.

Sharon Reck opened the meeting at 10:00 a.m. The minutes from the October meeting were read and approved with one correction.

Treasurer's Report: Sandy Baker reported a total of $5,317.80 in the checking account. Current expenses include the Reston recital. Income includes registration fees for the Dulles Holiday Recital, the Reston recital, a harpsichord rental, and the 2020 Ensemble Festival.

Membership Report: Melinda McCullah reported that there are 56 members in total. The one new member this month is Shoreh Ghajar.

Website: Jeri Bennett cleared the website of people who have not renewed their memberships. Members discussed whether to remove recorded music from previous Ensemble Festivals and decided to keep it available online.

Harpsichord: The instrument is at the McConnell home and will soon move to the Pino studio. This month Lewinsville Presbyterian Church rented the instrument for a Baroque concert called Bachtobberfest.

RCC Recital: The recital will be held on Sunday, November 18 at 1:30 p.m., later than usual in the calendar year due to a busy season at the Reston Community Center.

Dulles Holiday Concert: The schedule is full for the concert. Annie Feigles is working with The Piano Company for the piano use. Members who have registered must pay the registration fee immediately. Details of the event are on the website. Members are invited to email photos of past holiday concerts to Annie for an Events page on Facebook.

Ensemble Festival: Today's program will be devoted to this business. See the website for dates.

Next Meeting: There is no meeting in December. The next meeting will be January 8 at The Piano Company. Sharon Reck would like to work to build membership in the new year through a greater online presence. LinkedIn or Facebook pages are some ideas. There is also a need to increase funds for the group.

Sharon Reck thanked Music & Arts for hosting today's meeting and for providing refreshments.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:40 a.m., to be followed by a program led by Libby McConnell and Sharon Reck on 2020 Ensemble Festival business.

Respectfully submitted,
Libby McConnell, FLMF Recording Secretary
