

The Fairfax-Loudoun Music Fellowship met on Wednesday, October 1, 2017, at Music and Arts in Sterling. Members present included Lydia Kriso, Sandy Baker, Amy Work, Sharon Reck, Phyllis Vickers, Karen Pino, Connie Olivera, Jeri Bennett, Suzanne Sorensen, Melinda McCullah, Felicia Crawley, Maria Bokel, Ellen Ortega, and Hannah Lane.

Sharon Reck opened the meeting at 10:05 a.m. Libby McConnell read the September minutes, which were approved with one correction.

Sandy Baker reported that there is $16,891.86 in the checking account. Income included member dues, Reston Community Center recital fees, and Ensemble Festival registrations. A bank statement and a PayPal statement are available for members to peruse. Expenses included ASTA dues and the speaker fee for September.

Darya Gabay sent a report on the upcoming Reston Community Center recital. Due to low enrollment, there will be only one recital at 1:30 on October 22.

Jeri Bennett has added some new members to the member list. The website is updated.

Amy Work reported that Lansdowne has agreed to host this year's MusicLink fundraiser holiday recital. The resort is trying to avoid congestion, so recitals have been scheduled around large parties. The recital will be on the Waterfall Terrace. No more than 50 people may attend any one recital. Thirteen teachers have signed up for the Lansdowne recitals. Registration has been extended to November 1. Send registrations and $15 payment per student to Amy Work or use the PayPal link on the website. Entrants will receive certificates, which will be created by Ann Reck. Amy has contacted Steve Cunningham about tuning the piano.

Announcements:

Voices of Worship, Felicia Crawley's choir, will perform Friday, October 13, at Mount Pleasant Baptist in Herndon.

Connie Olivera announced that a pump organ is available to be donated from Adams Green Funeral Home.

Sharon Reck thanked Music and Arts for the use of their space and the refreshments.

The meeting adjourned at 10:25 a.m., to be followed by a program devoted to the Ensemble Festival. The 2018 event will be held at Riverside High School on February 17, with a snow date at Tuscarora High on February 24.
